

Mueller Winery Returns to Healdsburg

By Lori Mueller
April 29, 2013

Healdsburg, CA – Privately owned Mueller Winery has announced the sale of their Starr Road winery facility in Windsor, California. The sale, which was finalized last week, does not include the Mueller brand, wine inventory or grape contracts. Mueller will continue to source their grapes from the same premium Russian River Valley vineyards they have been using for the past twenty years. Winemaker, Bob Mueller, will move the hands-on production of his highly acclaimed Russian River wines to a new state-of-the-art facility in Santa Rosa in time for the upcoming 2013 harvest.

The Mueller Tasting Room, known for its “Tasting in the Cellar”, is moving to a new spot in downtown Healdsburg, located at 118 North Street, across from the Raven Performing Arts Center. Tasting will continue at the Starr Road site until June 1st at which time the new tasting room in Healdsburg will be open Daily from 11:00 AM – 6:00 PM.

Bob and Lori Mueller established the Mueller brand in Healdsburg in 1991 when they built their first winery, Robert Mueller Cellars, on Foss Creek Circle. They are thrilled to be returning to their hometown.

About Mueller Wines

Mueller wines are primarily known for their critically acclaimed Russian River pinot noir, chardonnay and zinfandel. They have been included in the Wine Spectator “Top 100”, as well as “Twenty Favorite Sonoma Pinot Producers”. Their flagship wine, “Emily’s Cuvée” Pinot Noir, has been named “one of Russian River Valleys best pinot noirs at any price” by the Wine Spectator.

Contact

Lori Mueller
P O Box 2100
Windsor CA 95492
707.239.0336
Lori@MuellerWine.com
www.muellerwine.com

###